MAURICE M. GUY
Principal

Sir William Temple once said, "Books, like proverbs, receive their chief value from the stamp and esteem of ages through which they have passed." This 1952 S-I-S Boom will first of all have great value to you because of the present time. The staffs have portrayed upon the pages of this book the activities and the people associated with our school this year. In years to come the book will continue also to have value as a record of your days at South School.

CAMERA CLUB

Suzanne Zubler, sponsor

Getting rainy day, circus, night, and interest-arousing animal pictures were the assignments given to the Camera Club members. Officers were Carolyn Crawford, president; Ronnie Petre, vice-president; Bob Burnett, secretary-treasurer. Members included Peter List, Tom Sharpe, Marvin Palmer, Carol Lynn Keller, and Betty Kendall.

CHEERLEADERS

Evelyn Vassaw, sponsor

Helping to keep up the enthusiasm and pep at our volleyball and basketball games were this year's cheerleaders who led cheers both at home and away. This year's squad includes Carolyn Wood, Carmen Brown, co-captains, Sandra Seaman, Lynn Burrows, and JoAnne Fink.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Albert L. Eynon, sponsor

Dramatic Club members earn their credits by being in some kind of public performance. There are three different groups and forty-two members altogether. Officers are Sally Carroll, president; Susan Barr, vice president; and Connie Barry, secretary-treasurer.

In the star group are, Ed Germain, Bob Bruton, Carol Sageman, Carolyn Crawford, Bill Vogt, and Sally Carroll. Adrienne Griffin, Alice Abler, and Jack O'Brien make up the Senior Players Group, and the Junior Players include Glenan Hayes, Elizabeth Schallhorn, Sandra Shriner, Sharon LaFond, Sharon Martin, Jack Forbes, Nancy Snider, Pat Boyse, Ellen Luenburger, Jim Boyse, Sally Roggman, Kay Spousta, Bob Burnett, Tom Mc Cellan, Margaret Rooker, June Schuette, Jackylyn Silkstone, Carol Hundshamer, Beverly Elow, Susan Barr, Victor Bloomstrom, Bob Devers, Nancy Herbert, Jackie Childreys, Pat Cay, Kay Miller, and Sally Robertson. Twenty-two of these students earned their credits first semester and many are earning them now, and by the end of the year will finish in a higher group.

MONITOR STAFF

June St. John, sponsor

Keeping us on our toes in the halls this year was the monitor squad. Serving both semesters was Eileen Stokus, captain, and Sharon Bell, lieutenant.

A "B" average in scholarship and citizenship was required of the girls on the monitor staff. Those contributing 32 hours of service received an "S" pin. At their posts were: Jane Adolf, Virginia Anderson, Beth Austin, Judy Bailey, Judy Beckman, Janet Bolger, Dorothy Bowles, Pat Brown, Betty Brubaker, Dorothy Cornish, Bonnie Davis, Pat Day, Sharon Demo, Carol English, Irene Grigorjevs, Marilyn Hatch, Mary Johnson, Betty Jones, Jane Knight, JoAnn Marsh, Judy Neymeyer, Frances Noel, Rosemarie Peppin, Beverly Rappuhn, Elaine Rappuhn, Dixie Rodeitcher, June Schuette, James Sebele, and Joyce Zegelien.

NEWS STAFF - First Semester

June Roethke, sponsor

The school paper, S-I-S Boom, is an extra-curricular activity first semester. Staff members meet each Monday to write and edit the paper.

For this activity the following students received "S" pins: Connie Barry, Carmen Brown, Mary Fitch, Susan Pabst, Dareene Shea, SallyWard, and Hallie Watson.

PRESIDENTS' COUNCIL

Katherine Kelley, sponsor

Our Presidents' Council, consisting of the presidents of each homeroom, has completed another year of solving our school problems and planning a couple of good times for our students.

At the first meeting a Halloween party was planned. The officers, plus Pat Day, Sue Barr, Floyd Wright, Jack Forbes, and Barbara Bensinger, made up the planning committee. In March the council planned the final dance at playnight, complete with an Arthur Hill dance band. At circus time Council Members decided that each homeroom would have the name of a state to identify itself on the ticket sales bulletin board.

First semester members were: Mary Lou Kieft, president; Paul Goodrow, vice-president; Mary Louis Hinds, secretary; and Ronnie Martin, treasurer, plus Sue Gilbert, Douglas Spence, Sue Symons, Pat Day, Connie Clark Janice Miller, Jack O'Brien, John Knezek, Joe Fobear, Guy Leacher, Sue Barr, Harold Engle, Floyd Wright, Dave Bingham, Barbara Bensinger, Carole Sageman, Frank Rosengren, Jack Forbes, Warren Herring, Dave Valdiserri, Danny Martindale, Pat Coy, and Lila Hilderbrant.

PUPPET CLUB

Suzanne Zubler, sponsor

President of the Puppet Club this year was Bob Burnett. Members included Dick Healy, Peter List, Susan Barr, Ronald Petre, Tom Temple, Dick Fisher, Kay Spousta, Kay Miller, Julia Frieling, Nancy Snider, and Sandrale Zimmerman.

SERVICE CLUB

Jule Ure, sponsor

Those members completing 10 hours of service in the Service Club receive "S" pins. Some of the miscellaneous jobs are ushering for plays, washing dishes, managing the Lost and Found, helping in the office, and taking care of children. These students also sold unclaimed lost and found articles, the proceeds going to the Red Cross, and ushered at the P. T. A. Open House.

All Student Acts Featured in 1952 Circus

The milling crowd settled in their seats, the lights dimmed, the spotlight centered, and the curtains drew apart. This was the moment for Queen Sally Carroll and her court composed of Barbara Anderson, Carmen Brown, Mary Lou Kieft, and Janice Wallgren to be introduced by Mr. Guy at the Twenty-first Annual Spendless and Seemore Circus.

These five girls were chosen by the student body from a group of nominees that also included: Connie Barry, Patty Callas, Janet Eurich, Mary Lou Hinds, Sharon Jewett, Geraldine Kaufman, Pat Lilja, Sharon Montague, Carol Morningstar, Marjorie Muehlenbeck, Kaye Terrian, Sally Ward, Hallie Watson, and Wendelyn Wilson.

For the second time in circus history a girl was chosen to emcee the show. Connie Barry won this honor. Other contestants were: Alice Abler, Bob Bruton, Ed Germain, Mary Miller, Barbara Plamp, Carol Sageman, and Sally Ward.

To the cadence of the drums, South's Senior Band, under the direction of Mr. Shumate, marched on the floor to play "Champions of Liberty," "Dusty Dan," and concluded with "The Rifle Rangers."

South School Promenaders, who included Gerry Garcia, Judy Kleinschmidt, Rosemarie Furlo, Detmar Finke, Dave Bingham, Nancy Snider, Sharon Martin, and Ronnie Martin put on a fine exhibition of the western style of square dancing. Miss Wade sponsored this group.

"Anything You Can Do, I Can Do Better," a pantomime from "Annie Get Your Gun," was done by Carol Hundshamer and Margaret Meyer.

Twirling and whirling, the Rollonda Troupe entertained with their fast exhibition on rollerskates. The boys on the speeding wheels were Ed Germain, Detmar Finke, Dick Blakeway, Roger McIntosh, Dave Bingham, Courtney Yeager, Vic Suppes, Jack Young, Herbert Benjamin, Dennis Hartner, Jim Zastrow, Jim Grinnell, Fred Neuenfeldt, Marvin Towns, Don DuCharme, Dick Thompson, Linton Sproull, and James Geeting.

Judy Dingman was the featured toe soloist in a gay twirling dance routine entitled "Judy and Her French Clowns." The chorus included Pat Day, Lynn Burrows, Francis Miller, Connie Roush, Denice Weiker, Julia Winston, Sue Granville, Nancy Swan, Kay Miller, JoAnn Fink, Ann Gomon, Kay Spousta, Judy Righter, Carol Hundshamer, Bonnie Seaman, Sandy Seaman, Ann Southworth, Sharon Jewett, Jane Schutt, Sue Barr, Sharon Martin, and Sally Roggman.

Performing graceful and agile tricks on the mats were South's own "Tumbleers" made up of Dave Blanchet, Darrell Brown, Harold Engle, Louis Gerard, Jim Hammon, Bob Kundinger, Bob LaPierre, Danny Martindale, Dick Meier, Burrows Morley, Bill Reis, Jim Rappuhn, Bill Robertson, Larry Smith, Tom Temple, Bill Vogt, Bill Wilbur, and Jewel Young. Assisted by clowns Ron Kabobel and Bob McDonald, these boys were under the direction of Mr. Krawczak.

The "Queen of the Air," ZoAnn Wenzel, performed daring feats at dizzy heights; her maid was Kay Ann Cummings.

To the tune of "The Syncopated Clock" the "Dumbell Dollies" entertained. Clicking their dumbells in time to the music were Mary Flucke, Helen Greenfield, Irene Grigorjevs, Delores Hunt, Mary Johnson, Carol Kleinert, Sandra Cone, Marguerite Engle, Pat Schoonmaker, Sandra Schreiner, Nancy Schreiner, Audrey

Smith, Sharon Smith, Mary Kay Spadafore, JoAnn Spence, Marilyn Vogt, Karen Woidka, Delores Campbell, Sandra Faust, Barbara Fuller, Dortha Whitney, Judy Bailey, Carol Bourdow, and Dorothy Cornish.

Smooth and mellow, "The 4 J's" a barbershop quartet, followed. Harmonizing were Jack Forbes, Jim Grinnell, Jim Geeting, and Jack O'Brien.

Gracefully swinging and swaying, the "Moon Dusters," our 1952 ladder girls, went though their act with Mr. Franklyn Brooks accompanying on the organ. The girls were Nancy Snider, Connie Roush, Leona Rethman, Clara Sauve, Helen Bellinger, Lucille Belill, Kay Laing, Sharon Martin, and Beth Austin.

Under the black light, four girls, Judy Dingman, Pat Day, Judy Righter, and Julia Winston tapped out a military toe dance. The flourescent costumes added a unique touch.

A few feet from the ceiling, doing various tricks on the high pole, were Mary Jo Campbell and Sally Carroll.

In "Equine Capers", those two old friends, Jerry Rooker and his horse Billy, performed clever tricks. Jerry's sister, Margaret, assisted.

Skylarks of '52 performed daring stunts to exite and please the crowd. These performers, trained by Miss Vassaw and Mr. Howay, included Jo Anne Newvine and Barbara Anderson. Sally LaFleur and Beverly Brown did an unusual muscle grind act.

Another attraction was the teeter board. Pat Cay, Mary Jo Campbell, Donna Gerger, and Karen Krogman did flips and various other tricks. Jumping were Marlene Thomas, and Ida Mae Thompson. Catching and holding the chair were Marilyn Beirlein, Adrienne Griffin, Helen Bese and Sally Sparks.

Several other novelty acts were presented at the different performances; including Lynn Burrows and Susan Barr in a roaring 20's Charleston number; Frances Scott singing her interpretation of Johnny Ray's "Cry;" and a trumpet trio consisting of Dick Meier, Dave Mikula, and Gary Carden; and an accordion solo by Jeanne Jarabeck.

Our show was brought to a grand climax by Jack and Jill Hegenauer, a talented brother and sister team, doing an acrobatic routine involving difficult and well-executed swinging, balancing, and posing.

RED CROSS

Exceeding the Red Coss contributions of last year, South School netted $420.44 in total contributions.

The money was collected from individual donations of the students, a sale of unclaimed lost and found articles, and a talent assembly. Approximately ninety Red Cross boxes were filled in the homerooms.

Taking part in the Red Cross assembly were Alice Abler, Ron Schumaker, Girls' Chorus, Elizabeth Schallhorn, Victor Blomstrom, Jim Boyse, Jim Ikner, Adrienne Griffin, Kay Spousta, Jeanne Jarabeck, Judy Dingman, Bonnie Seaman, Jack and Jill Hegenauer, Nancy Snider, Edward Germain, Carol Hundshammer, Glenan Hayes, Beverly Ehlow, Pat Cay. General planning committee: Floyd Wright, Guy Leacher, Janice Miller, Paul Chamberlin, Mary Lou Kieft, Mary Louise Hinds, Carole Sageman, Phyllis Bussey, and Doug Spence.

Representatives for the year were Phyllis Bussey and Paul Chamberlin.

—S—

Mary Louise Hinds and Sharon Kouts represented South at the all-city Junior Citizens' Council meeting that was held to plan for the spring Clean-up Campaign in Saginaw.

Managers were Burrows Morley and Ken Westphal.

1951 SOCCER

In the 1951 city soccer competition South's team captured a co-championship with Webber.

Getting the season off to a good start on Sept. 27, Ernie Dijak collected six points against Central as we downed them 6-2. Webber handed us our only defeat, score 5-2, Oct. 3, but we came back and rolled over North 12-2 on Oct. 10, and Central, 8-0 Oct. 18, which put us in first place tie with Webber. The final game of the season for city championship played against Webber resulted in a draw, 2-2.

BASEBALL

South's 1952 baseball team, under Coach Clarence Krawczak, lost the opening game 5-4 to Webber. This is the only game played, as we go to press.

Girls Win Volleyball Championship

South's girls' volleyball team triumphed in the 1951 volleyball race with a total of 11 victories and one loss.

The first game of the season, October 2, was with North who offered stiff competition as they defeated us 15-12. Our girls came back with a strong lead the second game and won easily 15-5. South took Central easily both games on October 10 with a 15-5 and 15-1 score.

October 16 Webber was poised on the other side of the net. We won the first of the two encounters by a score of 15-2, but the second game Webber stubbornly took an early lead and hung on gamely. We came back in a close finish which resulted in our favor 15-5. Meeting North again on October 23, we defeated the Northerners both games; 15-13; 15-6.

The second time we met Central on their floor, they jumped to an early lead of 7-2, which they were determined to hold. An exciting rally followed with the final score reading South 15, Central 8. The next game was comparatively easy with South chalking up 15 points to Central's 3.

Meeting Webber on November 13 for our last game of the season, we defeated the Webberites the first game 15-4. The second team saw action in the second game. The girls found they had a tough game on their hands, as the score tied in a deadlock at 9-9. There was a bitter fight and the team came through beautifully, ending the season with a score of 15-11.

9A BANQUET

On Monday, June 2, the 9A class, their guests and the faculty gathered in the girls' gym for the annual 9A banquet. Invited guests included Mr. and Mrs. Chester F. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Brock, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen H. Lyttle and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Allen.

The mothers of the pupils prepared and served the meal. Mrs. Henry Snyder was the general chairman assisted by Mrs. Bishop Davis, Mrs. Wesley Kouts, and Mrs. Harold Vollmer.

Henry Snyder was student toastmaster and introduced the following speakers: Joanne Coenis, academic; James Geeting, non-academic; Sally Ward, fine arts; and Carole Sageman and Ronnie Vondette, extra-curricular activities.

Madrigal singers sang two numbers: "Surrey with a Fringe on Top" and "In the Still of the Night." Dancing in the boys' gym and games in several classrooms concluded the evening's entertainment.

Miss Loraine Gay, ninth grade adviser, served as general chairman. Mrs. Beatrice Pankonin assisted student speakers. Miss Geneva Null was in charge of decorations.

VOCAL MUSIC CONCERT

"Music Americana" was the theme for the annual Spring Concert which was presented May 23 under the direction of Miss Marilyn Wade. Groups participating included: Madrigal Singers, Choir, Seventh Grade Boys' Ensemble, Barbershoppers, Seventh Grade Girls' Glee Club, and Eighth and Ninth Grade Girls' Glee Club.

The "Spirit of '76," a tableau, symbolized "The Birth of a Nation." Characteristic of the South are Stephen Collins Foster's songs which were presented by the Seventh Grade Girls' Glee Club and Negro spirituals sung by the Choir. A Western square dance scene and the 1849 Prospectors, the Seventh Grade Boys' Ensemble, portrayed the West.

From the Gay 90's period we had the inimitable Barbershoppers. Also from this era, we saw a scene from "The Little Red Schoolhouse," which was done by the fifth hour Choir. Songs of the doughboys from World War I were "Keep The Home Fires Burning" and "Over There."

Representing the Operettic Period were "Alice Blue Gown" from "Irene" and "Indian Love Call" from "Rosemarie."

The Gilbert and Sullivan team of the current musicals are Rodgers and Hammerstein who have given us such hits as "Carousel" from which was taken "June Is Bustin' Out All Over" and "You'll Never Walk Alone!"

World War II gave us an assembly-line production scene suggesting "Rosie the Riveter," which was presented by the Eighth and Ninth Grade Girls' Glee Club. Songs of today, which are becoming classics to all Americans, are "In the Still of the Night" and "When Day Is Done," sung by the Madrigal Singers.

Closing the program was "Where In The World But In America." Accompanists for the concert were Jan Davis, Connie Roush, Elizabeth Shallhorn, and Hallie Watson.

INSTRUMENTAL CONCERT

Directed by Mr. Lyle Shumate, the spring instrumental concert was presented in the auditorium on May 9. Bill Vogt was our capable Master of Ceremonies.

Our Combined Beginning and Advanced String Ensembles played "Five Celtic Melodies" arranged by Woodhouse. The Advanced Essemble played "Entr'acte Gavotte" by Gillet and "Viennese Melody," a folk tune.

Nancy Herbert's piano solo was "Witches' Dance" by MacDowell. The Advanced String Ensemble returned playing "Pizzacato Polka" by Delibes. A violin duet, "Intermezzo" from "Cavalleria Rusticana" by Mascagni, was played by Celia Griffore and Paul Chamberlin. "Blue Waves Waltz" by DeLamater concluded the strings' portion of the program.

Adding a martial note, the Junior Band played "Success March" by Bennett. "Serenade," a flute duet by Schubert, was the selection of Sue Barr and Mary Card, who were accompanied by Elizabeth Schallhorn. The Junior Band returned to play "Saskatchewan Overture" by Holmes and "Little Rastus," a novelty number by Bennett.

Griffen's "March Snappy" was the first number played by the Beginning Band. This group then played "Two Waltzes" by Metcalf and "Forest Preserve March" by Chenette.

"March of the Majorettes" by Simon, the first number played by our Senior Band, was followed by "Glass Slipper," a musical story of Cinderella by Yoder. Next Jacqueline Ghildreys, accompanied by Mrs. Georgina O'Day, played a clarinet solo, "Czardas" by Monti.

The program concluded with the band playing "Determination Overture" by Hayes and "Sharpshooters March" by Metallo.

"Inner Willy" - All School Play

"The Inner Willy," by Betty Knappe, was chosen by Mr. Eynon as the all-school play; the cast was chosen from seventh, eighth, and ninth graders.

This comedy concerned Willoughby Adams, age 16, who was ruled by dominating aunts. When he finally begins to notice girls, he decides that eating turnips and swallowing cod liver oil is not exactly fun. Willy's inner self, or "Inner Willy," finally wakes him up and Willy realizes what he has been missing.

The characters were as follows:

Willoughby Adams ..... William Vogt
Inner Willy ..... Edward Germain
Aunt Hester ..... Adrienne Griffin
Aunt Louise ..... Alice Abler
Aunt Olga ..... Carol Sageman
Carol Martin ..... Sally Martin
Trudy Marshall ..... Sharon LaFond
Janet Marshall ..... Sandra Schriener
Stanley ..... Jack Forbes
Mike ..... Robert Bruton
Prompters ... Jack O'Brien, Carolyn Crawford
Music ..... South School Junior Band
Properties ..... Ellen Leuenberger, Pat Boyes
Staging ..... Tom McClellan, Jim Boyse, Bob Burnett
Make-Up ..... Carol Keller, Sharon Bell, Janet Bell

AWARD ASSEMBLY

The long postponed award assembly was held Friday, February 15, even though the pins had not arrived. Early in March the pins were distributed.

Twenty-six students were awarded fifth honor pins and will be eligible for gold pins in June, if their average is maintained. First honor pins went to 93 pupils; 17 received a number 2 pin; 53 students earned a third pin and one pupil was eligible for a number 4.

Students who had performed a special service to the school were awarded "S" pins: 100 pupils were eligible. Certificates were given to 64; athletic awards were also distributed.

The School Choir sang "Abide With Me," "Now the Day is Over," and "Men of Harlech" under Miss Wade's direction.

The faculty awards committee includes Miss Russell, chairman, Mrs. Davis, Mr. Shelley, and Mr. Guy.

"Fog Island" - 9A Play

"Fog Island," a suspense mystery play in three acts, was presented Friday, April 23, under the direction of Mr. Eynon.

The plot of the play concerns a scientist, Jerry Martin, who lives alone on a small island off the north west coast of California, working on an atomic project. Foreign agents capture him, hoping to make him reveal the secrets of his work. A group of girls are lost on the island and come to Jerry's house to stay over night. One of the girls suspects foul play, and with clever planning manages to solve the mystery.

The cast is as follows:

Mrs. Williams ..... Alice Abler
Mr. Williams ..... Jack Adams
Jerry Martin ..... Bob Bruton
Sheriff Doolittle ..... Jack Forbes
Brock ..... Jim Boyse
Margy O'Laughlin ..... Karen Russell
Hazel Sommers ..... Judy Dingman
Ann Wickliffe ..... ZoAnn Wenzel
Maurine Gardner ..... Beverly Miller
Johannah Green ..... Ellen Leuenberger
Priscilla Palston ..... Carole Sageman
Music ..... South School Junior Band
Prompters .... Jack O'Brien, Adrienne Griffin
Properties ..... Ellen Leuenberger
Staging ..... Tom McClellan, Mgr. Carl Bickel, Bob Burnett
Make-up ..... Carol Lynn Keller, Janet Miller, Sharon Bell

Sixth Grade, Room 220

We have had many interesting and enjoyable experiences in our room this year. We had a Thanksgiving shadow play for other rooms and our parents and did the shadows for the Christmas program.

With our study of China we gave a puppet show on Li Lun, a Chinese boy. We wrote our script, made our puppets, stage, and other necessary things. We were proud of Lana Riseley who was a winner for South School at the contest for Red Cross speeches. We all worked hard on speeches.

Our group worked out a quiz and a dramatization on books for our radio program.

Fifth and Sixth Grades, Room 262

The fifth grade made a Mexican market. Miss Zubler took their picture in it. When the sixth grade studied India, they made a surface map from flour, salt, and water, and mounted it on cardboard.

We also have a different kind of reading in our room. Every person reads at his own rate and when he finishes his book, he gives a report on it. We were proud of the singers from our room at the Christmas assembly. We have had many science experiments. The most interesting one was when we took milk apart.

Fifth Grade, Room 214

In Social Studies, we studied the United States, Canada, Alaska, Mexico, Central America, and the Hawaiian Islands. We made many maps and reports.

For the Junior Red Cross, we made nut cups, menu covers, tray mats, and decorated napkins. We filled a gift box and made Red Cross speeches. At Christmas time, we made gifts and sang in the Christmas program. For Clean-Up Week, we made clean-up posters.

Fifth Grade, Room 260

We have made many interesting things throughout the year such as paper mache, Easter eggs and clay pottery but probably we enjoyed most making puppets.

Our room had News Club twice a week which helps us with our social studies. We were proud when Joan Nash was chosen to represent our school at the Red Cross speech contest. Our final project was the making of a newspaper with Judy Harrell as the editor.

Fourth Grade, Room 252

We have enjoyed studying about lands far away. It was fun making clay and paper mache illustrations for Eskimos, Jungle, and Desert Lands.

For science we made a glass garden, studied spiders, and learned many interesting things about weather. Everyone gave to the Jr. Red Cross and we filled three boxes for foreign children.

Fourth Grade, Room 254

We enjoyed the study of the solar system best of all in science. In Social Studies we have studied the Belgian Congo, Eskimos, the desert, the Netherlands, Norway, and Switzerland. We plan to make a play in which we make an imaginary trip to countries we studied. In arithmetic we learned all our addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division facts and how to work problems with them.

Third Grade, Room 162

Third Grade enjoyed studying pioneers and Indians, constructing and furnishing a log cabin, an Indian village, while writing and presenting a pioneer play and also an Indian play. Mrs. Kennedy showed us how to spin and Mr. Richards showed his fine collection of Indian implements. A study of health and the library completed the year.

Third Grade, Room 258

We began the year with a study of Indians and made a tepee, papooses, pottery, and head-dresses. While studying pioneers we had fun making our large log cabin with a fireplace, loft, and other furnishings. We wrote a pioneer play and presented it to other rooms. We furnished the year with a study of transportation.

Second Grade, Room 256

This year we made a bus, built a grocery store, and made a post office. We learned about numbers, studied transportation and new spelling words. We practiced our writing, saw many good movies, and wrote stories.

Second Grade, Room 160

Community Life was the highlight of the school year. Visits to the dairy, grocery, bakery, and the Post Office, stimulated various activities. The class made a large pictorial map, constructed "South's Market", made a movie of the story "Wheat to Bread" and built a post office. All the projects afforded joyous experiences which made the children's work fun.

First Grade, Room 158

We have learned to read and write. We are also learning to work and play together. We built a farm, a house, and a fire station. We visited the fire station and the farm. We liked the horses on the farm.

First Grade, Room 152

We have learned to do many things this year. Now we can read, write, and spell. We enjoy reading library books.

We made a farm, house, and bakery to play in. We love to dramatize stories. We all learned to weave and made woven Easter Baskets for our fathers.

S. I. S. SNOOPER

The world is talking politics
And presidents-to-be,
But Southerners are more concerned
With Cupid's nominees.
From Sis Snooper's point of view
Here they are, "two-by-two."
Phyllis Bussey, a Kentucky maid,
Has lost her heart to Kenny Wade.
Bob Krogman's heart ticks like Big Ben
Since he met "HER," — Janice Wallgren.
Barbara Russell, a girl who's nice,
Is happy when she's with George Dice.
Buzz Morley's always jolly and gay
When little Jan Davis comes his way.
Here's a couple that's really new
"Fuzz," and the lady that's known as "Lou."
Dorothy Denzer's heart stops beating
When along comes a guy by the name of Geeting.
Ronnie Danks ranks really high
In Jane Collier's roving eye.
Ginger Gallagher's satisfied
To have Roger Dittenber at her side.
(Of course this can be changed without rhyme or reason
For a young man's fancy can turn in this season)

SIS

P. S.
Others may talk of the flowers of spring
Of the brooks, and of baseball, and the birds that do sing.
But it's really spring—with winter out of the rut
When ears start to sprout below hair that's crew cut.
So at South it is spring—certain sure and most legal
With heads that most resemble the American bald eagle.
